

The History of St. James's From the Very Beginning.

No matter how much you know about St. James's, you're about to learn a whole lot more. Every Wednesday evening from April 14 through May 5, we'll see the history of St. James's through the lens of race in our series: Uncovering Our History. Chapter 1 will cover the years 1830-1865.

Under the leadership of the Racial Justice & Reconciliation Ministry, a team of St. James's parishioners has undertaken the research. In addition, well-known historians of antebellum Richmond and the Episcopal Church, Dr. Gregg Kimball and Dr. Ed Bond, respectively, will provide us with the larger historical landscape and context.

April 14: An Overview of Richmond 1830-1865, by Dr. Gregg Kimball

Dr. Kimball is the Director of Public Services and Outreach at the Library of Virginia and the author of American City, Southern Place: A Cultural History of Antebellum Richmond.

April 21: An Overview of the Episcopal Church 1830-1865, by Dr. Edward Bond

Dr. Bond is recently retired from Editor-in-Chief of Anglican and Episcopal History at the Historical Society of the Episcopal Church. He has taught the history of the Episcopal Church at Sewanee's School of Theology and was Associate Professor of History at Alabama A&M University 2003-2015.
