

Seasons of Sacred Travel

Mark Cooper shepherded twenty-one pilgrims to the Holy Land in February.

Children's Center Sunday included some impassioned singing by students led by Mark Whitmire.

This year, the Youth Ministry's SNOWFEST featured... SNOW! Kids and chaperones were thrilled.

The March 24 Dylan Mass featured the Guitar Ensemble and West Gallery Choir and a full house in the pews.

Faith-based civic engagement was the focus of a presentation at our Wednesday night fellows.

Shutterbug Squad

Calling all lens pros

The Communications Office would like to invite photographers who are looking for a ministry to join the Shutterbug Squad. Your help is needed at church events and services, on trips and retreats, throughout the year. Contact Russell Lawson (804) 355-1779 or rslawson@doers.org to get on the list for assignments. And bless you for doing it!

The Whitlock Legacy Society and the Anderson hosted an afternoon reception at Canterbury to talk about ways to support 100 years.

Music and Engagement

Our annual Shrove Tuesday Mardi Gras raised over $70,000 to support our loving outreach to the world through missions.

Over three days, over forty volunteers and staff in the Youth Ministry participated in some high level planning led by Ministry Architects, a consulting group who are specialists in church youth formation programs.

The Lenten focus for adult formation dinners and study.

About forty youth and chaperones worked the day at Shalom Farms for the Youth Day of Service on March 23.

The Reverend Dr. Vienna Cobb in March at Westminster support St. James' in our next

Palm Sunday traditions included Holy PEEPS and the procession of the Stuart Circle Parish.